My Mom enjoyed her life to the fullest.Never complained about being ill or sad. Always had a helping hand for others didn't matter who or where you came from. Her door was always open. Family life was a plus for her. She loved her children unconditionally. Did the best she could and taught the best way possible.

I'm grateful for everything good and bad,everything was a lesson to learn. It showed me when to give a smile, a hand, or my back. Life is too short and she believed what you do and say to other or falsely accused, you will see in the one you love the most.She was never lost for words. My mom had the biggest HEART ever.

She loved White Roses she said they looked peaceful, eventhough her favorite color was RED and Marilyn Monroe & Betty Boop were her girls. She also loved driving fast and listening to chimes like me.

"Please feel free to send her candles and pictures of you and her. I'm sure she wants to hear from you".

The background is a textured, light brown or beige color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. The word "Gallery" is written in a white, elegant cursive font, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the roses.

Mom, I want to ask you, please help Frankie get thru this cancer. You have a connection in heaven. Please help us get thru this.

Cary (Madelyn's friend)

You are in the hearts of everyone who has known you and even those who have only heard about you!

Madelyn (May)

I miss you so much, my days are so sad without you. I can't stand the pain it has NOT gotten easier. Help me.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Maddie

My Mom loved being in the backyard by the pool, she felt relaxed there. She would go there to catch butterflies and place them in books, bible, magazines and even frame them. I would always ask her not to do that because she is making their life shorter than it already is. She answered, "life is short, when I die I'm coming back as a butterfly" . Now, ever since My Mom earned her wings I feel her presence when I see a butterfly. I don't catch them because I want her love to be with me forever, I don't want to see them dead. 💔

Gladys Tirado Ellin aka Mami, Mama & Titi.

Gladys Ellin was born in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico on March 6, 1937, to Pascual & Ramona Tirado. Gladys attended school in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico at San Carlos Borromeo school. Graduated from John Jay College in Brooklyn.

She arrived in NYC on June 14, 1950 and united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Efrain Ellin on September 22, 1956. Out of this union came a Son and 2 daughters, Efrain Jr., Madelyn and Gladys.

Gladys was employee with St. Joseph Children Services where she served in many positions for 25 years.

Mom had a favorite saying, "I can do it all" we have no idea where mom learned this saying but whenever we felt hopeless and down she would recite this and tell us to get up and try again.

Gladys of Homestead, Florida departed this life on April 1, 2006 while spending all her time at her daughter Madelyn's home. She loved life and lived it well. She had a very big heart and gave freely of her love to all. Gladys had an extend hand when it came to helping others pave the way.

Gladys Ellin leaves to rejoice in her memory her husband Efrain, 1 son and 2 daughters, Efrain Jr., Madelyn and Gladys, 8 grandchildren Melinda, Francine, Frankie, Luis, Lynette, Gizzelle, Stephan and Stephanie and 1 great granddaughter Jazlyn and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; her sisters Amanda, Eneida, Lilly and brother Pascual. She will join her mother and father Ramona and Pascual Tirado and sister and brother Carmen and Victor Manuel in heaven.
